Dear Harold

Enclosed is a draft of my response to the Kermit Hall shame in the OAH Newsletter.

I send it to you to read, IF you have the time. I see already some things I ought to rephrase etc. One thing bothers me is the vocabulary and felicity of expression so as to remove one handle the historians always employ in dismissing criticism. This is probably insurmoutable for one loses the punch often in trying to do this.

I use Priority Mail to get around the week end and slow surface turn around time. I think I will have time to redo a couple of more times before finishing it up in ten days or so.

It is a bad OAH article.

I am hunting for McCloy and the Nazis.

Regards,

David Wrone
